—Last week Athens county, Ohio, sold $100,000 of bonds issued for road making purposes, at a premium of $8,631, or more than 8 1/2 per cent. There were some higher bidders than the figures at which the award was made, but by reason of informality in the bids they were rejected.

—Jacob C. Smith, of Doddridge county, arrived here yesterday over the O. R. R., with 17 head of heavy draught horses, which he purchased at Cincinnati for use in the Doddridge county oil field. The horses are all heavy Norman stock. Mr. Smith informs us that he will purchase another lot when the weather settles and work begins in earnest.—Parkersburg Sentinel.

—Mrs. Crocker will remain at Mrs. Dye's until Friday morning with her lovely Hair Goods. Ladies are delighted with her goods and wish her to remain longer than Wednesday.

—Harry Stiner was fined five dollars and costs in Mayor's court Tuesday for drunkenness and disorderly conduct.

—At the First M. E. Church next Friday evening will undoubtedly be the affair of its kind for the year. An excellent Musical Program will be rendered in the Auditorium. A supper will be served in the Parlor from 5 to 10, consisting of gushers, dry hoes, Cow Run production, good flow, headache posts, rich bonus, etc. There will also be a "Bureau of Oil Well Information," where the public may obtain rare information as to "How to locate Gushers, The road to success, How to become an oil operator, etc." This department will be in charge of the Goddess of Success, and the Oil Well Mascot will be there to assist timid and bashful operators. The indications are the oil men will be out in force, and a cordial invitation is extended to the families of such residing in our city.

The program was popular in its makeup, there being nothing classical excepting the numbers splendidly rendered by Miss Emma Payne on the piano. All the choruses were sung in good time and showed extensive drill on the part of the singers. Electric Bitters.

Electric Bitters is a medicine suited for any season, but perhaps more generally needed, when the languid exhausted feeling prevails, when the liver is torpid and sluggish and the need of a tonic and alternative is felt. A prompt use of this medicine has often averted long and perhaps fatal bilious fevers. No medicine will act more surely in counteracting and freeing the system from the malarial poison. Headache, indigestion, constipation, dizziness yield to Electric Bitters. 50c and $1.00 per bottle at Styer's Drug Store.

Watertown.

Rollen Walcott, brother of Ed. Walcott, of Watertown, died in Missouri on the 11th of February last, aged 48 years. Rollen enlisted in the 4th Va. cavalry, served 4 months, enlisted in the 3rd U. S. C. served 3 years, reenlisted and served 3 years more. Since his army life he has been in the western states and territories not becoming settled to any business.
